Configure Other Email Clients to Access Your New Google Apps Account

Many people use email clients other than the Gmail web interface. These instructions give information for configuration for other clients such as Thunderbird or a phone.

Configure Other Clients

1. Before configuring any client or after changing your password, you must login to your account via https://mail.google.com/a/alumni.msoe.edu/
2. To configure your email client, see the corresponding Google FAQ listed below:
